

Fort Sumter and Bull Run
" No Six-Month War"

As of April 12, 1861:

	North	South
Pop.	22 Million	9 million - 3.5 are slaves
Economy	100,00 Factories	20,000 Factories
Railroad	20,000 miles	9,000 miles
Money	$ 189 Million	$ 47 Million
Gold	$ 56 Million	$ 27 Million
Navy	Most of the ships	Basically Nothing
Army	Many Troops - Poor Leaders	Few Troops - Risky Leaders

Fort Sumter

- * Located in _____, South Carolina.

- * The Union troops had moved from their original fort to Fort Sumter. Food supplies began to dwindle in late March, and the women and children were sent home.

- * Lincoln tried to get supplies to the fort, but the Confederates had blocked the bay.

- * The Confederates told the commander of the fort, Anderson, that he had to surrender his flag by 4:00 A.M., April 12.

- * Anderson refused, and at 4:12 A.M. on April 12, 1861, the Civil War began.

- * The fighting is useless. The only casualty was a Confederate horse. Lacking supplies, and no immediate opportunity to get any, Anderson surrendered .

- * The south was _____. Jefferson Davis vowed that his little army would show the north how serious they were about independence.

- * Lincoln asked for 75,000 troops to serve three month duties.